THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1770.

LONDON, FEBRUARY 19.

THE Duke of Grafton gave the following anſwer to a Gentleman, who applied to him lately upon an intereſting national concern, "I am out of office, but I ſee that what you propoſe ſhould be done, and I think it muſt be done for that reaſon."

The grand buſineſs which was expected to be determined on Saturday, was deferred 'till this day, very warm debates having ariſen on a previous ſubject.

The Houſe of Commons did not break up 'till paſt one o'clock on Saturday morning: It is ſaid the galleries were cleared, and no perſons admitted but members of the houſe.

The Minority are ſaid to have gained an acceſſion of four great commoners ſince Friday morning.

The ſeals, it is ſaid, have been offered to a certain Baronet, but it is confidently aſſerted that he refuſes to accept them, unleſs he can have a penſion fixed on him and his family, of 3000l. per annum, on any removal or diſmiſſion, and the immediate grant of a peerage, with the title of an Earl.

We hear that Lord Howe, has not reſigned his place as Treaſurer of the Navy, but ſtill acts in that capacity. And that the Earl of Briſtol continues to hold the Privy Seal, as well as his office of Groom of the Stole.

It is ſaid that the preſent Premier, whoſe ſkill as a financier is univerſally known and acknowledged, hath ſhewn himſelf a perfect maſter in that difficult branch of politics, by his plan for raiſing and applying the ſupplies for the preſent year.

It is ſaid that a very great perſonage has ſignified his intentions of viſiting his German dominions this ſummer, if party quarrels ſubſide.

Friday her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Amelia honoured the Earl and Counteſs Temple with a viſit, at their houſe in Pall-mall, and ſpent the evening with them.

An evening paper ſays, that laſt week a motion was made in the court of King's Bench, for leave (which was granted) to any juſtice of the peace to accept the diſcharge of John Wilkes, Eſq; on the 18th of April, when the term of his confinement expires, as the judges will, at that time, be on the circuits.

We hear from Glaſgow, that ſeveral agents have lately been taken into cuſtody, and others obliged to abſcond, for enliſting Highlanders in the Weſt of Scotland, for the French ſervice.

We learn, from good authority, that no meaſures whatever have been taken towards effecting a coalition of parties.

A few days ſince the Duke of Grafton, Lord North, Lord Gower, and the Earl of Hillſborough, had a long conference with a great perſonage, at the breaking up of which the Earl of Hillſborough, it is ſaid, went to the Lord Commiſſioner Bathurſt, from whence it is conjectured that he was to offer that gentleman the ſeals.

It is aſſerted, that a certain honourable perſon, (ſince become a Peer) who acted as Premier to one Favourite a few years ago, from a principle of œconomy, or—ſomething elſe, cauſed the head to be removed from a ſtatue of the late King, to make room for that of his preſent Majeſty.

CHARLES-TOWN, APRIL 12.

THOUGH we were flattered in many Letters by the laſt Veſſels from England, that the American Revenue Acts would be REPEALED, during the then preſent Seſſion of Parliament, moſt of them agree, that ſome ONE of the Duties will be continued, in order to eſtabliſh an Acknowledgement of the parliamentary Power to tax us, aſſerted in the declaratory Acts: If ſo, we ſhall not yet be reſtored to our former Freedom; 'till which Period our Reſolutions abſolutely reſtrain us from a general Importation of Goods.

Laſt Monday arrived here the new EAGLE Packet-Boat, (a fine Veſſel) commanded by Capt. WILLIAM NICHOLLS, in 47 Days from Falmouth, with His Majeſty's Mails.

If the Plan for founding, erecting, and endowing a COLLEGE in this Province (which we are told is very extenſive and complete) ſhould ſtill be carried into Execution, which is ſcarce to be doubted, there will remain only to fix on the moſt proper Spot whereon to erect it; and as we may probably have many Students from the Weſt-Indies and other Places, it will doubtleſs be a great Encouragement to their being ſent thither, if the moſt airy and healthy Situation ſhould be choſen, where Youths may be leaſt incommoded in their Studies during the hot Months, and moſt free from the Danger of any Contagion, well removed from Temptations to Debauchery, and where they may have good Water.

We are adviſed, from different Parts of the Country, that the utmoſt Diſpatch is uſed by the ſeveral Boards of Commiſſioners for building Precinct Court Houſes and Gaols, to compleat the ſame during the Courſe of the preſent Year; eſpecially in the Frontier Diſtricts, which again begin to be infeſted with great Numbers of Horſe-Thieves and other Vagabonds, from whoſe Depredations and Outrages they fear, they can never be completely relieved, 'till a Vagrant-Act is paſſed.

DOUGAL CAMPBELL, Eſq; who held the two Offices of Clerk of the Crown and Pleas, and of the Common Pleas, has reſigned the former, in Favour of JAMES JOHNSTONE, Eſq; whom His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleaſed to appoint to ſucceed Mr. Campbell.—Mr. Campbell ſtill holds the latter, to which a Salary of £. 300 Sterling a Year is annexed, during his Life, by the Circuit-Court Act, as a Compenſation for the extraordinary Trouble and Expences he may be at in going the Circuits, and appointing Deputies.

On the 18th of laſt Month died, aged 77 Years, Mrs. ANNE LE BAS, Relict of Mr. James Le Bas, of St. John's Pariſh, where ſhe had lived 40 Years.

Laſt Thurſday Mr. WILLIAM GLEN, Jun. of this Town, Merchant, was married to Miſs MARTHA MILLER, Daughter of Stephen Miller, Eſq; of Cainhoy.

One of the Philadelphia Papers, of the 22d of March laſt, mentions of the Arrival there, on the 19th, of WALTER IRVINE OGILVIE GRAHAM, Eſq; of the antient Families of Montroſe, Monteith, Findlater, Airly, Dundee, Preſton, Bainf, Bruce, Intergharty, Carnouſtie, Bannat, Norton-Conyers, Forglen, &c. in Scotland, &c. from Drummadd-Mayor, near Inniskillen, Ireland; but, laſt from South-Carolina.

Doors, that amongst other Precautions, they disuaded every one they could from illuminating, to prevent any riotous Assemblies in the Streets, lest some, in a Fit of intemperate Joy, might attempt to compell those to put up Lights who were known to be disinclined; yet, upwards of one Hundred and fifty Houses were illuminated, many of them with Forty-five Lights, others with Twenty-six, and some with other Numbers. The Ship Mermaid was also decorated with Lights upon this Occasion, and made a very grand Appearance. 'Tis supposed, that upwards of four Hundred Houses would have been illuminated upon the present Occasion, if it had not been prevented, which would have exceeded any Number ever seen: So great is the Regard we pay to those, who suffer in the Cause of Liberty, by a resolute and steady Opposition, to the arbitrary and tyrannical Attempts, of such wicked and corrupt Ministers as would overturn the English Constitution.

"Wednesday the 18th Instant, being the Day that JOHN "WILKES, Esquire (that staunch Friend and Advocate for "Liberty) was to obtain his Enlargement from his long and "cruel Imprisonment; the same was celebrated by a Company "of 45 Persons, at the House of Captain Benjamin Stone, on "James-Island; where 45 Cannon were fired, at different Times; "an elegant Entertainment of 45 Dishes was provided, part "whereof was a Turtle of 45 Pounds Weight; Forty-five "loyal and constitutional Toasts were drank; and at Night, the "Front of the House was illuminated with 45 Candles. The "Whole was conducted with the utmost Decorum, well befitting so happy an Occasion; and at 45 Minutes past Eleven at "Night, the Company broke up, to the great Satisfaction of "all Parties."

The Court of General Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Assize and General Goal Delivery, was opened here on Monday last. The Charge given by the Hon. George-Gabriel Powell, one of the Assistant-Judges, gave general Satisfaction: And the Court finished their Business this Day. Twenty-three Bills of Indictment were delivered out to the Grand-Jury, of which Thirteen were found. Three Criminals were capitally convicted, viz. William Fush, Christopher Davis, and Ronald McDonald; the two former were recommended to Mercy, and the Jury returned a special Verdict, that the third was insane, at the Time he committed the Offence. Thomas Brown was found guilty of Horse-stealing; Thomas Lee, and Patrick Hewes, of Petit-Larceny; Sweeny Gordon, of an Assault and Attempt to kill; Thomas Liddell, of uttering a counterfeit Dollar; and five of Assaults, two others were acquitted.
